

Camp Description:

Mt. Carmel Art Camp is the opportunity for middle grade students interested in exploring visual art. Students entering grades 5-9 are invited to participate. This summer's theme is Comic Art. Campers will explore the history of comics and create their own comic book as well as other related forms of art. Campers will learn cartooning and Pop Art techniques.

Camp Director:

Mrs. Lauren Elfring teaches art at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School to students in grades 6-12. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Art Education from University of North Carolina at Elizabeth City State University. She is certified to teach art in Pre-K through grade 12 in the State of MD. Mrs. Elfring has experience teaching art in both after school and summer camp programs and has worked with students of all ages.
